

III. REMARKS

A further review of the Kalwara reference patent indicates that there it does not disclose the components of dearomatized petrol, culohexaol and toulene, as such. Again, the Kalwara reference patent discloses only two main components namely rubber polymers and resin (as does Applicant's disclosure and other solvents. Kalwara does not disclose the use of both solvents cylohexare and toulene-nor does it disclose the use of dearomatized petrol. Neither the Gaile patent (RV2,221,836) nor the Kalwara patent disclose the precise combination and percentages (ratios) of components.

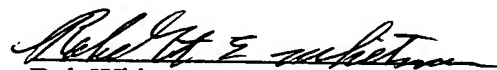

IV. CONCLUSION

In conclusion, Applicant maintains application is ready for allowance as seen in Applicant's amended Claim 1.
